

City of Dayton – An Immigrant Friendly City

AN INVITATION TO A CONVERSATION

WHAT The City of Dayton's Human Relations Council, on behalf of Commissioner Williams, Commissioner Joseph and City Manager Tim Riordan invites you to begin a conversation about Dayton as an immigrant friendly city.

WHY Foster a community that actively welcomes and integrates new residents and helps them on a path to citizenship.

WHERE Tech-Town 3rd Floor Conference Room, 711 East Monument Avenue

- Friday: February 18 from 8:30 – 10:00 AM
- Wednesday: February 23 from 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM
- Monday: February 28, from 5:30 – 7:00 PM

RSVP This invitation extends to any one of the above meetings or all of the meetings. Please let us know if you can make it! Call (937) 333-1400 before Thursday, February 17 or email Brenda Hawes at Brenda.Hawes@daytonohio.gov.

This is an invitation to: understand what it would take for Dayton to be an immigrant-friendly city; have a conversation with community members who are actively engaged in supporting the integration of new residents; propose city policy to support integration of new residents and further business development; explore support systems that further civic engagement processes and pathways to citizenship; gain collaborative commitments to work together; listen deeply to new ideas; and, envision the future of our city as an immigrant friendly city.
